* Pony Club Leaderboard Event/ Pony Club State Champs Qualifier
+ Interschools Qualifier

All competitors will receive a gift bag proudly sponsored by

General Information:

- * Grounds will be open at 6.30am with Dressage commencing at 8am and Showjumping at 9am.
- * A full canteen will be available
- * Rosettes will be awarded for 1st-3rd in each class, and ribbons for 4th-6th placings.
- * This event is open to ALL RIDERS. If you are not a member of Pony Club WA you will need to purchase an Open Event membership separately from PCWA for an additional cost of $45 (please contact organiser's for details).
- * Pre-entries only through global entries online. Entries will close 5pm Sunday 26th February
- * Pony Club WA rules and gear checking regulations will apply and all riders will be required to present for a gear check before competing.
- * Each rider/horse combination may enter up to 2 dressage tests at consecutive levels and up to 3 jumping rounds at consecutive levels. It is permitted to complete more than one round in the same jumping height or dressage level but the second round/test will be non-competitive.

- * NO DOGS are permitted on the grounds.
- * Yards are available on a first come/first served basis. Please note that they do not have enclosed gates and you will need to bring a lunge rope etc to secure. All yards must be left clean of hay and manure.
- * Rider ages are at 1/1/2023
- * Only one rider is permitted per horse.
- * Dress code – formal pony club uniform. Plaiting is optional.
- * Draw will be emailed to competitors via nominate.
- * Helper duties are mandatory to enable us to run this event. Jobs will be filled using the signup website and competitors are responsible for selecting their own jobs. A link will be emailed with the draw. Those who do not sign up for a job will be allocated a duty by the event organisers. Competitors will be required to complete one helper job for each horse entered (ie. two horses = two helper duties). There will be no exemptions from helper duty jobs – anyone who does not complete their job will be eliminated from the competition.
- * Show jumping classes will be run as optimum time events for 30-60cm classes. 70cm and above will be AM7. Rules can be found at <https://www.ponyclubwa.asn.au/wp-content/uploads/2022/03/Showjumping-Reference-Document-v1.6-11032022.pdf>
- * Dressage tests will be the new 2023 EA dressage tests. They can be found at the following website <https://www.equestrian.org.au/Dressage-rules>
- * Scratching/Refunds: Withdrawal of entries prior to the closing date will incur a $10 administration fee. Refunds for scratching after close of entries will only be given if a vet or doctor certificate is received and will incur a $10 administration fee.
